

Three Added To Harbor Tech Staff

Three persons have been added to the Harbor Junior College staff for the fall semester which began Sept. 15. Raymond J. Casey, director, announced yesterday.

Irwin M. Thomsen, formerly an instructor at Los Angeles Trade-Technical Junior College, has been added to the division of applied technology as machine shop instructor.

Mrs. Helen Morrison, formerly secretary at Gardena High School, has been added to the clerical staff as a senior clerk-stenographer.

Mrs. Frances Ver Bryck, a representative of the Los Angeles city schools' advisement service, has been added to the counseling department as a counselor and statistician. Reditions in the Tech staff for the fall semester include Wesley V. Craig, assistant to the dean of student activities, who was transferred to Los Angeles Trade-Technical Junior College as an instructor of technical illustration; M. L. Gordon, machine shop instructor, who returned to industry; and Henry Van Slooten, instructor of English, who was granted a leave of one semester to complete his doctorate degree.

The Pacific Hills Home Owners dance held Saturday night, Sept. 13, was a huge success. A large crowd gathered under ropes of balloons for a night of fun and festivities. One of the high spots of fun was a balloon dance for which ankles were festooned with balloons and the owners of the ankles tried to keep from getting their balloons broken. All in all, everyone enjoyed himself immensely and it is to be hoped that another such event will be held before too long.

The first meeting of the Walteria PTA for this year will be held tonight, Sept. 18, at the school auditorium. Meeting will be called to order at 7:30 p.m. Subject for the evening will be "Good Homes—Good Children," following the theme for the year which is "The Family—The Foundation." Speaker for the program will be a representative from the Los Angeles County Juvenile Division. Also during the evening, the teaching staff will be introduced by Mr. Kirks, principal. Hostesses for the meeting are the Kindergarten Mothers.

Miss Janis Bowen, Danaha St., celebrated her third birthday on Wednesday morning, Sept. 10. Invited to help her celebrate were Cathy and Susan Ellis, Linda and Cathleen McFarland, Ann Harner, Trudy Fitzpatrick, Mary Lou Beers, Sandy Bowen, and Billy Mitchell. The young fry enjoyed themselves playing games and helping frost the birthday cake. After games were over they had a picnic lunch of sandwiches, lemonade, cake and Popsicles. The cake was frosted in pink with princess candies around the edge.

Ah, yes, that big bird has been flapping his wings over our neighborhood again. This time the bundle he delivered was for Mr. and Mrs. Richard DeMott of Dalmaceda St. The new arrival, a six-pound, three-ounce girl, was named Joan Martene, and she came on Aug. 21. Since it was her daddy's birthday, the DeMotts had double reason to celebrate. Little Joan is the second child for the family, her older sister is seven. By the way, she made her debut at the Los Cerritos Maternity Hospital in Long Beach.

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Best, who lives in Wilmington. Paternal grandfather, J. V. DeMott, resides in San Pedro. Congratulations on the new addition folks!

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Naumann and son Billy left for Tucson, Ariz., after a visit of two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mosley of Ward St.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh and three children, formerly of Virginia, will soon move into the home they have purchased from the Ziskies. The house is on Adolph Ave. May we offer a hearty welcome to these new residents of Walteria and wish them much happiness in their new home.

Having a lot of fun last week were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kettering of Neece Ave., who were on a vacation in old Mexico for a fishing trip. While they were in Mexico, their two children, Geron and Paul, visited their grandmother, Mrs. Evelyn Kettering, in Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills, Dapaha St., were Sunday evening guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Burns in Inglewood, Sunday afternoon they enjoyed themselves too, when they attended the picnic held for the Harbor Division of the Los Angeles Police Department. The picnic was held at the San Pedro Rifle Range.

The J. F. F. Club held its annual dinner party on Thursday, Sept. 11. The group held the dinner at Marmacs of Lynwood, and then went on to a show. Enjoying the evening were Meses. Edith Buckingham, Ann Laughridge, Barbara Tarladsen, Helen Conze, Elsie Minor, Eva Kelley, Louella Lassen, Nettie

Also capturing a first place was Jay Elston, who was awarded $50 in cash for First Place in Meat Pen. Others were Bing Swanson, second place, meat pen; Joe Buffalo, third place, meat pen; Bob Klasing, sixth and tenth place, meat pen; Joe Lutes, eighth place, meat pen.

There were 68 entries competing in the meat pen class. Howard Murry copped a second and sixth place in Frier Fur Phillip, Lorine Harline, Ida Haun, Isabella Byerly, Bessie Sloecker, Della Armstrong, Georgia Creamer, and guests Mrs. O. R. McLoughlin of Oakland, Calif., and Mattie Hayes.

Mrs. Ethel Mosley, Ward St., was hostess at a tea party on Sept. 9, when the monthly meeting of the Christian Fellowship Circles of the First Christian Church of Torrance was held in her home. Twenty-six ladies enjoyed the afternoon at this affair.

More new parents this week were Mr. and Mrs. Benny Capdeville of Los Cerritos, who are the proud parents of a new baby girl, Sally Ruth, born at the Torrance Memorial Hospital on Monday, Sept. 8. The new arrival weighed in at 6 pounds, 10½ ounces. Proud maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thinkle of Newport St. Congratulations, folks!

Northrop Researchers Dance at Beach Club

Personnel of Northrop Aircraft's Special Weapons Division, engaged in guided missile research and development, held a dance at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club Saturday night. Called the "Snarkaper," the social affair featured dancing to music by Norcraft Cy Lucas and his orchestra, plus amateur entertainment by members of the division.

Approximately 1400 persons are now engaged in guided missile work at Northrop.
